Hey Alyssa,

I noticed the Adams 14 EMO selection isn't on the Feb. 13th and 14th agenda. Unfortunately, I received some concerns from last nights board session around CDE telling the local board only 1 of the applicants was qualified and it was the 1 that had the least amount of community support (educators,parents,students,etc). I will take any additional information you can provide as I have grave concerns about the 1 EMO that I am hearing CDE staff says is qualified. We also did some of our own research with support from NEA (in other states) on all of the EMO applicants and we are not matching with the recommendations I am hearing from CDE.

If it is easier for a quick phone call please let me know as I think this information is critical for the local. I am working the Denver strike but I have an inside management job today in the Northwest strike headquarters so will be available.
